

Here is an old ground

John Hilton (1599-1657)

Here is an old ground, here is an old ground. If right it be sung 'twill prove a round. Then hold it true, Dick, and sing your notes quick, quick, for you'll find a crafty trick, There - fore sing your notes quick, hold true your prick, then mer - ri - ly we will a - gree, three parts in u - ni - ty.
